

DLC Training February Newsletter

Now that we've well and truly embraced 2023 there's a lot to look forward to. Some of our Partner Awarding Organisations are reviewing and updating their qualifications and we're excited about the continued development of the DLC HUB, the learning platform which supports our learners throughout their studies. Whether you're yet to join the DLC community, or are already one of our valued learners we recommend considering your method of learning by reading our latest blog and taking our learning styles quiz.

Keeping up to date with the latest news and developments, in business and your industry can be a challenge. Visit our 'Industry Updates' area, developed with you in mind, to keep you informed with relevant news and interesting developments within your sector.

The VARK Learning Styles Explained

THE VARK SYSTEM

The VARK model is one of the most popular and simplest models created to understand learning styles. Created in 1987 by Neil Fleming, the model focuses on four key learning styles and suggests that every person has their preference.

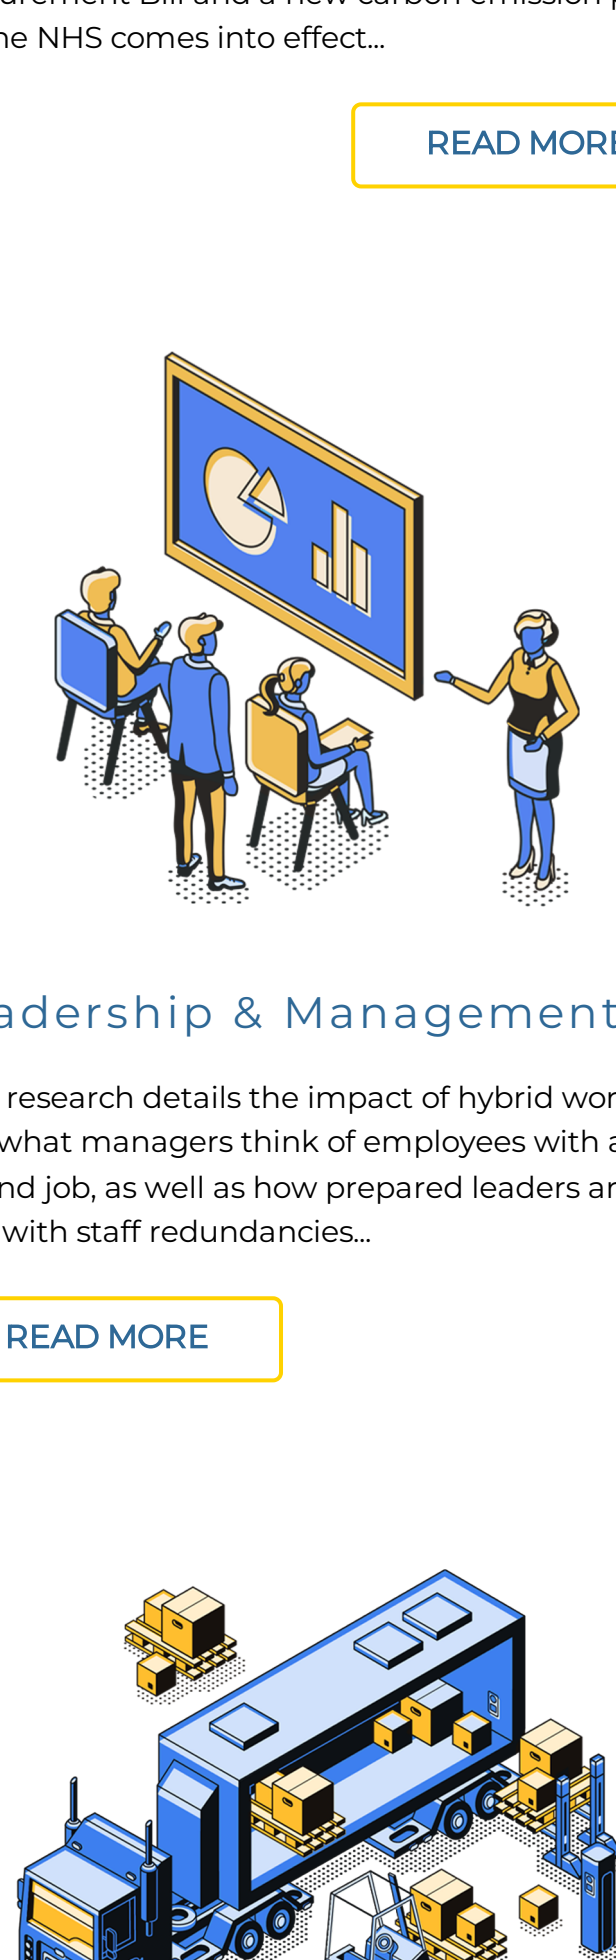

VARK learning styles is one of the most popular models used to determine your preferred way of learning. Find out more about the VARK model and discover your learning style.
