Guidance notes

Use these notes to help you complete the form.

- A text/email confirmation will be sent to you upon receipt of your application
- To comply with Data Protection, please note that this application form, payment details and supporting evidence will be destroyed once the application has been processed. Please ensure that you do not send any original documentation, such as academic certificates, that you do not wish to be destroyed
- We collect and use your date of birth for data validation purposes.

Section 2

- All new members are automatically assigned to a CIPS branch according to home address. If you wish you may select an alternative branch once your application has been confirmed by logging onto the MyCIPS area of the website, www.cips.org. For details of branches and special interest groups see cips.org.

Section 4

- If you are rejoining the Institute, perhaps after a career break or job change, you should still complete all sections of the form with your updated details. If possible, please quote your previous membership number.
- If you have recently registered for the CIPS Ethical E-Learning, please quote the membership number emailed to you.

Section 5

- CIPS will send you information regarding your membership, studies and other CIPS products and services to your home address and primary email account. To amend these details please log on to your MyCIPS profile, details of which will be in your welcome text/email.

Section 6

- If you are applying for full membership (MCIPS) based on an accredited programme and you have 3 years experience in a role of responsibility in procurement and supply, please join as an affiliate member and then send your academic certificate, qualification transcript and your CV along with a covering letter of evidence from your line manager once you have received your membership ID. Full details on how to upgrade to MCIPS is available on our website cips.org
- Procurement professionals with 5-7 years experience at a senior strategic level in procurement and supply may be eligible to achieve MCIPS via our Management Entry Route (MER). If you wish to be considered for this route, please check our website cips.org for full details on how to apply, and then join as an affiliate member.

Section 7

- Please read and complete our Data Protection statement and sign the Declaration.

Payment Form/Direct Debit mandate

- To enable you to benefit from your membership faster, where possible please join online at cips.org. Our online payment system will take payment in 8 local currencies.
- Alternatively, please fill in relevant details for your chosen payment method and return to the relevant address as stated on the payment form.
- As part of your purchase CIPS may need to contact you by email. See our Privacy Statement for how we use your data.

The Direct Debit Guarantee

If you pay by direct debit please keep this guarantee for your information:

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit "Chartered Institute of Procurement & Supply" will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request "Chartered Institute of Procurement & Supply" to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by "Chartered Institute of Procurement & Supply" or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society
- If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when "Chartered Institute of Procurement & Supply" asks you to
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
